

'My Name is not Refugee'

Questions from the book

The following questions could be used when appropriate to initiate discussion as a class or in pairs or groups.

In groups of three:

- What would you take?
- Do you think you could live in a place where there is no water in the taps and no one to pick up the rubbish?

In pairs:

- How far could you walk?
- What games can you think of?
- Do you like cars and lorries?

Individually:

- Can you speak more than one language?
- What is the weirdest food you have ever eaten?
- What things would remind you of home?
